*** Nearly all revenue is derived from forensic accounting

Campos & Stratis is one of the 50 largest CPA firms in the country.* We are the only one which does not earn most of its fees from traditional audit, accounting, and tax practices. The footnote says it all. In this confusing period of CPA mergers, Campos & Stratis has remained rock steady. For over 20 years, virtually all we have done is forensic accounting.

Our services include worldwide on-site assistance in damages analysis and review, investigative auditing, determining document production for discovery, financial and information management services, expert witness testimony, financial investigation, forecasting of economic losses, fraud audits, asset searches, and tracing of funds.

For more information on the best forensic CPAs in the business, call your nearest Campos & Stratis office. And, you won't have to ask for the litigation consulting department.

Schwab offers estate planners time-saving administrative assistance. Drafting a client's trust agreement shouldn't saddle you with the details of reregistering securities or funding the trust. But self-trustees often need extra guidance. That's where Schwab Trust Services can help.

Drafting trusts is your strength; helping your clients fund them is ours.

Your local Schwab branch can work with you personally to help clients set up their brokerage trust accounts. We even give you a toll-free TrustLine to call, if you have questions.

At Schwab, your clients act as their own trustee. Schwab acts only as the custodian of their account. And unlike banks, we don't charge custodial or management fees. What's more, with our low commissions, they'll pay less on trades than at a full-commission brokerage firm.

Discover why Schwab has attracted over $3 billion in personal trust assets. Learn how services dedicated to the self-trustee can serve your clients—and your practice.
